

Winners and Losers

I came across these definitions of winners and of losers as defined by Wolfe Rinke.

Winners...

...say "if it is to be, it is up to me"
...translate dreams in to reality.
...empower.
...say "let's find out."
...are part of the solution.
...are not afraid of losing.
...say "I was wrong."
...always make time.
...make commitments.
...say "I'll plan to do that."
...say "I'm not as good as I can be."
...listen to what others say.
...catch others doing things right.
...learn from others.
...see opportunities.
...do it.
...feel responsible for more than their jobs.
...say "there ought to be a better way."
...celebrate others.
...are willing to pay the price.
...always expect success.

Losers...

...say "I can't help it."
...translate reality in to dreams.
...control.
...say "nobody."
...are part of the problem.
...are afraid of winning.
...say "it was not my fault."
...often waste time.
...make promises.
...say "I'll try to do that."
...say "I'm not as bad as a lot of others."
...walk until it's their turn to talk.
...catch others doing things wrong.
...resent colleagues.
...see only problems.
...talk about doing it.
...frequently say "I only work here."
...say "it's always been done that way."
...complain about others.
...expect it on a silver platter.
...always expect failure.

There is no time to lose but so much time to win, so begin right now to make it a winning life!
